WHEREAS, it has been demonstrated in the annexed affidavit of Daniel M. ORDERED that the Bureau of Prisons allow Mr. Palacios an extension of his date to surrender to May 29, 2012 to allow the Bureau to correctly list Mr. Palacios residence as Tomas Granillo, El Paso, Texas.

v.

ESTAVE PALACIOS

AFFIRMATION TO ORDER
CONSENTING DEFENDANT'S RESIDENCE INFORMATION

Case Number 09-3595

Daniel M. McGillicuddy, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am the attorney of record for Defendant Esteve Palacios. As reported to Your Honor in correspondence dated May 1, 2012, Mr. Palacios legally resides with his wife, Tricia and her two step-children at Tomas Granillo, El Paso, Texas. Mr. Palacios, I am informed by his sister, New York Lawyer Joanna Palacios, has resided in Texas since 2000 and a copy of his Texas driving license is attached. He voted in Texas during the last Presidential election.

While the United States Probation Department correctly reports his address at the El Paso location, but the US Bureau of Prisons lists his address at that of his mother, 107-59 92nd Street, Ozone Park, Queens.

I have been informed by a US Bureau of Prisons representative, named Donna D. that the Bureau of Prisons will not change Mr. Palacios address unless ordered by the court to do so; and, if the address is not changed, Mr. Palacios will be required to surrender for his jail term in Brooklyn, New York, not at a location close to his wife and step-children if space is available.

I have also been informed by the aforesaid that the Bureau of Prisons needs at least 3 weeks to change Mr. Palacios' legal residence designation for this to be any change in his incarceration location.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that the annexed order be issued.

WHEREFORE, your affiant respectfully requests that the annexed order be issued.

Respectfully,

Sworn to this 8th day of May, 2012.
